

Center Cemetery Association
Norfolk, Connecticut
Rules and Regulations
April 25, 2012

Rules and Regulations are promulgated for the express purpose of governing the activities in Center Cemetery for the mutual protections and benefit of burial rights (lot) holders and the cemetery as a whole. Guidelines are established with certain restrictions to insure uniformity and control within the cemetery grounds. No one will deny that rules and regulations play an important and integral part of promoting the dignity of the cemetery.

Rules and Regulations
Center Cemetery Association, Inc.
34 Old Colony Road, Norfolk, CT 06058

In the very earliest days, Mother Church found it necessary to make rules and regulations which would protect the sacred places and the relics laid therein. She could not and would not allow anything within the holy precincts which would desecrate them, lessen their beauty or bring dishonor on the dead.

To insure the sacred character of Center Cemetery in accord with the mind and traditional practice and to establish and maintain good order; the following rules and regulation are in effect.

For the mutual protection and benefit of plot holders in Center Cemetery, the Board of Managers hereby adopts the following rules and regulations. All lot (plot) holders and persons within the Cemetery, and all lots (plots), shall be subject to said rules and regulations and such amendments or alterations thereof or additions thereto as shall be adopted by the Board of Managers of Center Cemetery from time to time; and the reference to these rules and regulations in the document conveying the right of interment shall have the same force and effect as if set forth in full therein.

“Come to me, all you who are weary and find life burdensome, and I will refresh you. Take my yoke upon your shoulders and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble of heart. Your souls will find rest, for my yoke is easy and my burden light.” Matthew 11; 28-30

Friend, take care how you walk and act, for you are walking on holy ground, the graves of beloved family and friends.

Remember them, give thanks, and go safely in peace.

Article I

Definitions

- 1-A The term “Management” shall mean the person or persons duly appointed by the Board of Managers for the purpose of conducting and administering the cemetery owned and operated by the Norfolk Center Cemetery Association, Incorporated.
- 1-B The term “Care” shall mean that general care of the cemetery as herein defined.
- 1-C The term “Cemetery” as used herein shall mean all the property of earth burials, and any Mausoleum for crypt entombments or Columbarium for cremated remains.
- 1-D “Crypt” shall mean a space in a mausoleum of sufficient size to be used to entomb human remains. “Niche” shall mean a space in a columbarium for human remains.
- 1-E “Entombment” shall herein mean burial above ground in a mausoleum crypt.
- 1-F “Grave” shall mean a space of ground in the cemetery used, or intended to be used, for the burial of human remains.
- 1-G By the term “Interment” is meant either earth burial or entombment.
- 1-H The term “Lot” (Plot) shall include and apply to one or more than one adjoining grave, or one or more than one adjoining crypt.
- 1-I The term “Lot holder” (Plot holder) shall include person or persons who have purchased interment or entombment rights, or who hold same by right of inheritance or transfer.
- 1-J The term “Memorial” shall include monument, tombstone, headstone, grave marker, or tablet, or inscription on crypt front or fronts, for one or more deceased persons.
- 1-K The term “Lawn Crypt” shall mean a vault or other human remains container placed in the ground empty as a pre-need conveyance.

Article II

Purpose of Cemetery

- 2-A The Cemetery is intended for the interment of any person or persons who accept the conditions set forth in these Rules and Regulations. Any question of the burial shall be decided exclusively by the Management, and such decision shall be final and binding on the parties.

Article III

Admission to Cemetery

- 3-A The Management reserves the right to refuse admission to the Cemetery and to refuse the use of Cemetery equipment or facilities at any time to any person or persons, as the rules, judgment, and tradition may dictate.

Article IV

Arrangements for Interments

- 4-A The Management shall have the right to request those wishing to make a selection of a lot (plot), or arrange for an interment, to call the Cemetery Office in ample time to complete arrangements before the interment. If a Funeral Director or other Agent is representing the lot (plot) holder, the arrangements made by the agent with Management are binding on said lot (plot) holder.
- 4-B No organizations, except those approved by the Management will be permitted to conduct services in the cemetery.
- 4-C The Management shall not be liable for any order given by telephone, or any error occurring from the want of proper instructions as to the size of the casket, or as to the particular grave or crypt locations where interment is to be made. The Management reserves the right to make an equitable charge whenever additional labor costs result from such errors.
- 4-D The Management shall be in no way liable for any delay in the interment of a body where a protest to the interment has been made, or where the rules and regulations have not been complied with, or where said rules and regulations shall forbid such interment; and further, said Management reserves the right, under such circumstances, to place the body in a receiving vault until full rights have been determined. Any protest may be required to be in writing and filed with the Cemetery.

Article V

Interment Procedures

- 5-A All funerals shall be subject to and comply with the directions of management while they are within the cemetery.
- 5-B A Board of Health Permit for each funeral from the state, city, borough, or township authority having jurisdiction of the matter must be presented to the Management before interment is completed.
- 5-C The Management shall not be liable for the Board of Health Permit, or responsible for the accuracy of the data contained in said permit or for the identity of the person to be interred.
- 5-D The casket may not be opened at any time within a cemetery without the express permission (and in the presence) of the Management. The Management reserves the right to refuse permission to anyone to open the casket or to touch the body without the consent of the legal representative of the deceased or without a Court Order or an Order from the duly-constituted civil authority having jurisdiction. In the event necessity requires, the Management may take appropriate steps to correct any obnoxious or improper condition.
- 5-E Cremated remains must be interred.
- 5-F No disinterment or removal shall be allowed except with the permission of the Management and with written authorization of lot (plot) holder and nearest of kin and with proper legal procedure.
- 5-G The Management shall exercise due care in making a disinterment and removal, but it shall assume no liability for the damage to any casket, burial case or memorial incurred in making the disinterment and removal.

- 5-H The Management shall have the right to designate the hour and manner in which interments, disinterment, and removals will or will not be permitted. All interments, disinterment, and removals shall be subject to the payment of such charges as may be fixed by the Management.
- 5-I Besides being subject to the rules and regulations, all interments and removals shall be subject to the orders and laws of the properly constituted authorities of the city, county, state and federal including the Regulations of the Department of Health.
- 5-J Only persons employed by Center Cemetery, and only authorized equipment by said cemetery, shall be used in making interments, or removals, unless the Management makes other arrangements.
- 5-K Cemetery personnel will not be held responsible for damages or injuries resulting from defects in burial vaults, concrete cases and lids thereof when they set or seal said vaults, cases or lids or maintain the same.

Article VI

Correction of Errors

- 6-A The Management reserves, and shall have, the right to correct any errors that may be made by it either in making interments, disinterments or removals, or in the description, transfer, or conveyance of any rights or lot (plot), either by cancelling such conveyance and substituting and conveying in lieu thereof other interment rights or lot (plot) of equal value and similar location as far as possible, as may be selected by the Management, or in the sole discretion of the Management, by refunding money paid on account of said purchase. In the event any such error shall involve the interment of the remains of any person in any lot (plot), the Management reserves, and shall have, the right to remove and reinter the remains in such other lot (plot) of equal value and similar location as may be substituted and conveyed in lieu thereof.

Article VII

Instructions to Lot (Plot) Holders and Lot Plot Holders' Rights

- 7-A Persons, arranging for interments, should visit the Cemetery in order to aid them in effecting the necessary arrangements, with the Management.
- 7-B The Management reserves the right to specify the terms of purchase of all interment rights in lots (plots) and the manner in which said right shall be held or exercised.
- 7-C Should the lot (plot) holder fail to carry out the terms of purchase agreement, the management may declare said agreement cancelled and all rights of the purchaser in and to the lot (plot) forfeited. In the event of such default the Management reserves, and shall have, the right immediately or at any time thereafter, without notice, at its discretion, to remove to single graves, to be chosen by the Management, each of the remains then interred in said lot (plot). The Management, further, shall have the right to remove any memorial that may have been placed on said lot (plot).

- 7-D No coping, curbing, fencing, hedging, borders, or enclosures of any kind shall be allowed around the lot (plot) or around any grave. The Management reserves the right to remove same, without notice, if so erected, planted, or placed.
- 7-E All grave interments shall be made with concrete outside liner or burial vault constructed in accordance with specification determined by the Management, except in interments requiring an outside case of less than fifty-four (54) inches in length. Variation of the afore-mentioned must be deemed appropriate and approved by the Management of the cemetery.
 - A. The use of Lawn Crypts is not permitted.
- 7-F Digging around perimeter of memorial is prohibited and Management is not responsible for damage to memorials when there is evidence of such digging.
- 7-G The Management reserves the right to permit or authorize the interment of more than one human remains in one grave or crypt. The Management may exercise this right with reference to single crypts or single graves or any section of graves.
- 7-H The use of lot (plot) is for the lot (plot) holder or lot (plot) holder's relatives for interment only, and not for resale or profit. The rights of interment in the unoccupied portion of a lot (plot) may be sold only through the Management.

- 7-I In the event of death of a lot (plot) holder any and all privileges, of the lot (plot) holder, shall pass to the holder's family in the following manner:
- A. The spouse of the owner of any lot (plot) containing more than one interment space has a vested right of interment of his/her remains in the lot (plot), which right may terminate upon remarriage.
 - B. If the lot (plot) holder shall have filed written instructions with the Cemetery as to which member or members of his/her family shall succeed to the rights of said lot (plot), said instructions will be recognized by the Management, and will be followed if in the judgment of said Management such instructions are definite, reasonable, and practical, subject, however, to a vested right of interment of the surviving spouse.
 - C. If no valid or sufficient written instructions shall have been filed, or if valid and sufficient instructions are in conflict with a later will, and the lot (plot) holder has left instruction in said will, duly admitted to probate in a court having jurisdiction thereof, (subject, however, to a vested right of interment of a surviving spouse), such instructions shall control, provided they are not in conflict with the Cemetery rules and Regulations and provided the Cemetery is furnished with proof of the same.

- D. In the absence of valid and sufficient instructions filed by the lot (plot) holder or a duly probated will, the rights of interment shall devolve upon those entitled to succeed thereto under the intestate laws of the State of Connecticut.
- E. In a conveyance to two or more persons as joint tenants, each tenant has a vested right of interment in the lot (plot) conveyed. Upon the death of a joint tenant, the title to the lot (plot) held in joint tenancy immediately vests in the surviving joint tenant or tenants, subject to the vested right of interment of the remains of the deceased joint tenant and the surviving spouse of the deceased joint tenant.
- F. An affidavit by a person having knowledge of the facts setting forth the fact of the death of the owner and the name of the person or persons entitled to the use of the lot (plot) is complete authorization to the management to permit the use of the unoccupied portion of the lot (plot) by the person entitled to the use of it.

Article VIII

Service Charges and Payments

- 8-A The Management shall have a right to fix a charge and time of payment for each interment, disinterment, removal, lot (plot) transferred or released, and for the performance of any other service rendered by the Management; and all work in connection with such service shall be subject to the determination and supervision of said Management.
- 8-B Any indebtedness due for work performed on a lot (plot) must be paid before an interment in the lot (plot) may be made, or before any memorial may be erected.

Article IX

Right to Replate

- 9-A The following rights and privileges are hereby expressly reserved to the Management to be exercised at any time or from time to time for the erection of buildings, or for any purpose or use connected with, incident to, or convenient for, the care of, preservation of, or preparation for disposal or interment of, human dead bodies, or other cemetery purpose:
 - A. To re-survey, enlarge, diminish, replat, alter in shape or size or otherwise to change all or any part of portion of the cemetery.
 - B. To lay out, establish, close, eliminate, or otherwise modify or change, the location of roads, walks, or drives, provided ingress and egress to and from any lot (plot) is preserved or is allocated to the lot (plot) holder.
- 9-B The following rights and privileges are hereby expressly reserved to the Management to be exercised at any time or from time to time:
 - A. Easements and rights of way over and through all of the premises of the cemetery for
 - the purpose of installing, maintaining and operating pipe lines, conduits of drains for
 - sprinklers, drainage, electric, or communication lines, or for any other cemetery purpose.

Article X

No Easements Granted

- 10-A No easement of right of interment is granted to any lot (plot) holder in any road, drive, alleyways, or walk within the cemetery, but such road, drive, alleyways, or walk may be used as a means of access to the cemetery and its buildings as long as the Management devotes such road, drive, alleyways, or walk to that purpose.

Article XI

Use of Cemetery

- 11-A Visitors – Visitors within the cemetery shall use only the avenues, roads and walks, unless it be necessary to walk on the grass to gain access to one's lot (plot). The Management expressly disclaims liability for any injuries sustained by anyone violating this rule.
- 11-B Strangers – Strangers are not permitted to sit or lounge on any of the grounds, graves, or monuments in any cemetery, or in any of the buildings.
- 11-C Children – Children under fifteen years of age are not permitted within the cemetery, unless accompanied by proper persons to take care of them.
- 11-D Lawns – Lawns shall not be disturbed for any purpose except under the supervision of the Management.

Article XI

Continued

- 11-E Ornaments and Flower Vases – The right is reserved to regulate the method of decorations of lots (plots) so that uniform beauty may be maintained. The use of boxes, shells, toys, metal designs, ornaments, vases, glass, plastic, concrete, vigil lights, or crockery jars and containers, wood or metal cases, etc., shall not be permitted on any lot (plot) and such articles shall be removed by the Management. All flower vases must be installed with the approval of the Management.

- 11-F Motor Vehicles – Automobiles, funeral cars, and trucks must be kept under control at all times, and must observe the speed limit. At no time shall such vehicles drive through the gates or within the cemetery at a speed in excess of 5 miles per hour. Automobiles may not park or come to a full stop before an open grave unless such automobiles are in attendance at the funeral.
- 11-G The Management reserves the right to refuse admission to the cemetery of bicycles, scooters, skateboards, and motorcycles.

Article XII

Conduct in the Cemetery

- 12-A Any conduct which interferes with the rights of others or which in the opinion of management detracts from the operation of the cemetery is prohibited.
- 12-B Rubbish – Throwing of rubbish on roads, driveways, paths, walks, or any part of the grounds of the cemetery, or in its buildings, is prohibited. Receptacles for waste materials are located within the cemetery grounds.
- 12-C Picnicking – Picnicking or partaking of any refreshments by visitors within the cemetery is prohibited.
- 12-D Flowers and Shrubs – No one shall pluck any flower, or break any branches, or remove, injure, or cut any tree, plant, or shrub without specific permission of the Management. Plot owners may tend approved plantings within their plot.
- 12-E Peddling or Soliciting – No one will be permitted to peddle flowers, plants, or any other article or items, or to solicit the sale of any commodity whatsoever within the cemetery.
- 12-F Signs and Advertising – No signs, notices, or advertising of any kind shall be allowed within the cemetery except those placed by the Management.

12-G Improper Assemblages – The Management reserves the right to forbid and prevent assemblages which it deems improper.

Article XIII

Grading and Improvements

- 13-A The Management reserves the exclusive right to do all grading, landscape work, improvements of any kind, and all care of lots (plots); likewise to plant, trim, cut, or remove all trees, shrubs, and herbage within the cemetery.
- 13-B All improvements or alterations of lots (plots) in the cemetery shall be under the direction of, and subject to the approval of, the Management; and, should they be made without its written consent, said Management reserves the right to remove, alter, or change such improvements or alterations at the expense of the lot (plot) holder.
- 13-C The Management reserves the right to use legally approved chemical application to beautify or control pests on the cemetery properties.

Article XIV

Cemetery Hours

- 14-A The Management shall have the right to fix the opening and closing hours of the cemetery, cemetery office, and all buildings.

Article XV

Outside Workers

- 15-A The Management reserves, and shall have, the right to give authorization to any workmen, other than employees of the cemetery, before they may do work in the cemetery. Lot (Plot) holders may have certain work done in accordance with these Rules and Regulations at their own expense upon application to the Management; prices to be agreed upon and paid before said work is done.

Article XVI

Employees

- 16-A Employees of Center Cemetery are not permitted to do any work for lot (plot) holders except upon the order of the Management, but are required to be civil and courteous to all visitors.
- 16-B The Management shall have the right to maintain guards if in its discretion it deems it necessary, but is under no legal obligation to do so.

Article XVII

Loss or Damage

- 17-A The Management disclaims all responsibility for loss or damage beyond its reasonable control, and especially from damage by an act of God, the elements, earthquakes, war, common enemy, air raids, invasions, insurrections, riots, order of any military or civil authority, thieves, vandals, strikers, malicious mischief makers, explosions, unavoidable accidents, or any cause similar or dissimilar beyond control of the Management, whether the damage be direct or collateral. In the event it becomes necessary to reconstruct or repair any section of lot (plot), including graves or crypts, or any portion or portions thereof in the cemetery, which has been damaged by such causes, the Management shall give 10-day written notice of the necessity for such repair to the lot (plot) holder of record. The notice shall be given by depositing the same in the United States mail, with postage thereon duly prepaid, addressed to the lot (plot) holder of record, at his or her address stated on the books of the Management. In the event the lot (plot) holder fails to repair the damage within a reasonable time, the Management may direct that the repairs be made and charge the expense against the lot (plot) and to the lot (plot) holder of records.

Article XVIII

Lot (Plot) Holder's Change in Address

- 18-A It shall be the duty of the lot (plot) holder to notify the Management of any change in his/her post office address. Notice sent to a lot (plot) holder at the last address in the Management's records shall be considered sufficient and proper legal notification.

Article XIX

Care

- 19-A Center Cemetery is operated by the Norfolk Center Cemetery Association, Inc. a non-profit corporation, and an "Income Care" cemetery. All monies are used for cemetery purpose; a portion is set aside for investment, and the proceeds thereof are used to provide general care. "Income Care" is to be understood as that care and maintenance necessitated by natural growth and ordinary wear, and includes cutting of lawns, and the cleaning and maintenance of roadways, walks, and buildings, provided there are sufficient funds for these purposes.
- 19-B The term "Income Care" shall in no case mean the maintenance, repair or replacement of any memorial placed or erected upon any lot (plot); nor the planting, cutting, watering or care of any privately planted tree or shrub; not the planting of flowers or ornamental plants; nor the doing of any special or unusual work in the cemetery; nor does it mean the reconstruction of any granite, bronze, or concrete work on any section of the lot (plot), or any portion or portions thereof in the cemetery, injured or damaged by any cause, direct or indirect, beyond the Management's reasonable control.
- 19-C "Special Care" shall include only those specific services set forth in Special Care agreements with the lot (plot) holders, provided said services are not inconsistent with the purpose for which the cemetery has been established and is being maintained.

Article XX

Memorials and Rules for Memorial Work

- 20-A Memorial dealers shall abide by all the rules and regulation of Center Cemetery.
- 20-B The Management reserves the right at all times to approve and prescribe the kind, size, design, symbolism, craftsmanship, quality and material of memorials, inscriptions, monuments, or markers place or to be placed in the cemetery. All memorials are subject to the approval of the Management prior to the placement, and acceptance or rejection shall be based upon such approval.

- 20-C The Management also reserves the right to issue under separate cover detailed regulations and instructions pertaining to the kind, size, design, symbolism, craftsmanship, quality, and material of memorials, inscriptions, monuments, or markers to be placed in the cemetery. Said detailed regulations and instructions, and all amendments thereto, are hereby made a part of these rules and regulations.
- 20-D The Management reserves the right to fix the days and hours when any memorial may be delivered to the cemetery.
- 20-E All memorial work, or placement or removal of any memorial, shall be on the written order of the lot (plot) holder.
- 20-F Independent monument dealers or contractors who are allowed build memorial foundations are required to comply with specifications and directions established by the Management.
- 20-G A detailed plan and design of all memorials must be submitted to the Management for approval on the form furnished before a permit will be issued. If the memorial does not conform to the approved plan and design, it will be the sole responsibility of the dealer to correct any errors or deficiencies in workmanship and material.
- 20-H The location and position in which a memorial is to be placed or erected on a lot (plot) shall be entirely subject to the approval, and shall be under the supervision of the Management.
- 20-I No memorial extending above the surface of the ground shall be erected on lots (plots) designated as "Non-monument plots."
- 20-J Non-cemetery employees, in placing or erecting monuments and other structures, or bringing in materials in regard to such work, shall operate as independent contractors, but such work must conform with the regulations made by the Management.
- 20-K Non-cemetery workers, in placing or erecting monuments, buildings foundations and other structures, are prohibited from scattering their material over adjoining lots (plots), or from blocking roads or walks, or from leaving their material on the grounds longer than is absolutely necessary, or from attaching ropes to trees or shrubs. When any heavy material is to be moved over lawns, planks must be laid to prevent injury.

20-L Damage done to lots (plots), walks, drives, trees, shrubs, or other property by non-cemetery workers, dealers, or contractors, or their agents, may be repaired by the Management; and cost of such repairs shall be charged to the dealer or contractor, or his principal.

20-M The Management reserves the right to stop all work of any nature when, in its opinion, proper preparations therefore have not been made; or when work is being done in such a manner as to endanger life or property; or when work is not being executed according to specifications; or when any reasonable request on part of the Management is disregarded; or when any person employed on the work violates any rule of the Management.

20-N While the Management will exercise all possible care to protect raised lettering; carving, or ornaments on any memorial or other structure, on any lots (plots), it disclaims responsibility for damage or injury thereto.

20-O The Management reserves, and shall have, the right to correct any error that may be made by its employees or by any other person or persons in the location or placing of a memorial in any cemetery.

20-P Should any memorial, mausoleum, or tomb become unsightly, dilapidated, or a menace to the safety of persons within the cemetery, the Management shall have the right, after 30-days notice to the lot (plot) holder of record, whether to correct the condition or to remove the same, in either case at the expense of the lot (plot) holder.

20-Q Soliciting memorial sales or memorial work within the cemetery is not permitted.

20-R Outside contractors performing work on cemetery grounds shall supply a copy of proof of insurance to the Management.

Article XXI

Private Mausoleums and Tombs

21-A Mausoleums or tombs, either wholly or partially above ground, shall be constructed only in plots designated for them. Plans, specifications, material and location in the lot (plot) of such mausoleum or tomb shall be subject to the approval of the Management. The Management reserves the right to require that an endowment for future maintenance of mausoleums or tomb be deposited with it, said endowment to be of a size specified by the Management.

21-B When interment is made in a private mausoleum, the crypt shall be properly sealed, subject to approval of the Management. The entombment must be made in an approved casket which complies with the regulations of the controlling Department of Health.

21-C No walkways, patios, or other appurtenant structure will be permitted on the ground surrounding a mausoleum. No additions or changes will be allowed after the specifications and foundations plan for the mausoleum have been submitted and approved.

22-A Entombment must be made in an approved casket which complies with the regulations of the Connecticut Department of Health.

22-B The Management reserves the right to issue under separate cover detailed regulations concerning the use of Community Mausoleum. Such regulations may include, but not be limited to: the decoration of crypts; the size, quantity, type, and placement of lettering on crypts; and the use or non-use of flowers, vigil lights, etc

Article XXIII

Receiving Vault

23-A The Receiving Vault in the cemetery may be used for temporary entombments subject to certain rules and regulations.

23-B Receiving Vaults are for temporary use only and subject to a monthly rental, and under no circumstances shall a body be considered as interred or entombed by reason of its being placed therein.

- 23-C The management reserves the right, without notice, to remove from the Receiving Vault at once and inter any remains when same are not in a state of good preservation, or when the condition of the body renders its interment necessary.
- 23-D No remains may be placed in a receiving vault which presents a health or safety risk.
- 23-E The amount of the deposit, handling charges, and monthly rental rate shall be determined by the Management.
- 23-F The body shall be removed from the Receiving Vault within a reasonable time, which in no case shall exceed 90 days, unless the Management consents to a longer period.
- 23-G Upon failure to pay rental, or to make suitable arrangements for the final interment of the remains within a reasonable time, the Management may remove the remains from the Receiving Vault and cause same to be interred in any grave it may select after first having given seven (7) days notice by deposit of a letter in the United States Post Office with postage thereon duly prepaid to the person making the placement at the address stated on the Cemetery records, and shall apply the deposit on the expenses it incurs. In the event of such failure of default, the Management is empowered to act as duly appointed agent in obtaining any and all interment or health permits necessary for said removal and interment. As long as the remains are with said Management, this agency shall be coupled with an interest and this power shall be irrevocable.

- 23-H The Management will exercise due care in making a removal, but shall assume no responsibility for damage to any casket or burial case incurred in making the removal.
- 23-I The Management reserves the right to issue at any time under separate cover detailed regulations and instructions pertaining to the Receiving Vault in the cemetery, or to incorporate specific provisions in any receiving Vault

Agreement, and such regulations, instruction, and provisions are hereby made part of these rules and regulations.

Article XXIV

In General

- 24-A The statement of any employee of Center Cemetery shall not be binding upon the Management, except as such statement coincides with the document conveying the right of interment, and with these rules and regulations.
- 24-B The rules and regulations shall apply to any mausoleum or columbarium now in existence or which may hereafter be erected in Center Cemetery.
- 24-C Center Cemetery through its Management reserves the right, without notice, to make temporary exceptions, suspensions, or modifications of any of these rules and regulations, when, in its judgment, the same appears advisable, and such temporary exception, suspension, or modification shall in no way be considered as affecting the general application of such rules and regulations.
- 24-D In all matters not specifically covered by these rules and regulations, the Management reserves the right to do anything which in its judgment is deemed reasonable in the premises, and such determination shall be binding upon the plot holder and all parties concerned.
- 24-E Center Cemetery through its Management reserves the right at any time and from time to time to change, amend, alter, repeal, rescind or add to these rules and regulations or any part thereof, or to adopt any new rule or regulation with respect to its cemetery or anything pertaining thereto.

The above Rules and Regulations were approved at a Meeting of Norfolk Center Cemetery Association on the Twenty Fifth Day of April, Two Thousand and Twelve.

The above Rules and Regulations as revised were approved at the Annual Meeting of Norfolk Center Cemetery on the Eleventh Day of August, Two Thousand and Fifteen.
